MAP SHOWING THE
NAVIGABLE DEPTHS OF THE RIVERS
OF THE
UNITED STATES
AND THE
PRINCIPAL TRANSPORTATION ROUTES
ON THE SEA-COASTS AND GREAT LAKES
in the year of the Eleventh Census (1890)

Prepared by THOMAS J. VIVIAN
in charge of Transportation Statistics.

REFERENCES

Symbol	Meaning
‖—‖—‖—	Rivers having less than 3 feet of Water
o—o—o—	" " 3 feet and less than 5 feet
x—x—x—	" " 5 feet to 6 feet inclusive
>—>—>—	" " 6 feet of Water and over
|	Head of Navigation
- - - -	Slack-Water Navigation and Canals

The red lines running from port to port on the coasts and lakes, show the principal transportation routes, but must not be taken to indicate the correct sailing tracks

JULIUS BIEN & CO. LITH.